

Intact Public Entities (IPE) makes Canadian Red Cross Donation for immediate support of those affected by Hurricane Fiona

CAMBRIDGE, September 28, 2022 – In the aftermath of Hurricane Fiona, Intact Public Entities (IPE) is donating $25,000 to the Canadian Red Cross to support the communities and individuals impacted by the devastating weather event that took place September 23rd and 24th.

“Our thoughts are with all those who have been and continue to be affected by Hurricane Fiona.” says IPE’s Paul Jewett, Regional Manager Atlantic Canada, Municipal & Public Administration.

“We are here to help communities prosper in good times and be resilient in bad times. Events like this remind us of the importance of this sentiment. This donation will get help to those affected as quick as possible.” Says Larry Ryan, President and Principal Broker at IPE.

The organization will also match employee donations to the Canadian Red Cross or any other registered charity providing relief efforts made through the company’s gift matching program.

About Intact Public Entities
